

Day 3 Quiz

Part 1

1. What was the territory called when an imperial power allowed local rulers to stay in control?
 - a. a colony
 - b. a protectorate
 - c. an unincorporated territory
 - d. a state
2. In the late 1880s, American opinion began to shift and more people wanted to make the United States
 - a. a world power.
 - b. more isolated.
 - c. a protectorate.
 - d. part of Pan-America.
3. When Americans began looking overseas for new markets in the 1800s, they naturally tended to look toward
 - a. Mexico.
 - b. Spain.
 - c. the Pacific.
 - d. the Mediterranean
4. How did the United States force the Japanese to trade with them?
 - a. Killed the Archduke Yamamoto Suzuki
 - b. Took 300 sailors hostage in Hawaii
 - c. Sailed American warships into Tokyo harbor to show off firepower
 - d. None of the above
5. What was a rationale for building up a large navy for the United States?
 - a. it would provide an opportunity for men to patriotically serve their country
 - b. it would help acquire bases overseas to thwart Europeans from ruling foreign markets
 - c. the public supported Alfred T. Mahan's book that argued a navy was necessary to help protect its merchant ships
 - d. All of the above