

Day 5 Quiz

1. Benito Mussolini founded Italy's Fascist Party. Which one of the following defines what fascism is?
 - a. aggressive nationalistic movement that considered the nation more important than the individual.
 - b. passive worldwide movement that considered the world more important than the nation.
 - c. belief that one person is better than the majority because of where they were born.
 - d. aggressive buildup of a nation's military.
2. One of the new political parties to rise during the political and economic chaos in Germany after World War I was the National Socialist German Workers' Party, also known as the
 - a. Socialist Party.
 - b. Nazi Party.
 - c. Fascist Party.
 - d. Bolshevik Party.
3. In 1928 the Soviet dictator Joseph Stalin began a massive effort to
 - a. overthrow communism.
 - b. industrialize his country.
 - c. educate the peasants.
 - d. increase trade.
4. President Roosevelt supported the idea that trade between nations creates prosperity and helps prevent war. This theory was known as
 - a. isolationism.
 - b. patriotism.
 - c. internationalism.
 - d. plagiarism.
5. Germany, Italy, and Japan were known as this during World War II.
 - a. Allied Powers
 - b. Axis Powers
 - c. Triple Entente
 - d. The Big Three